

To: FCC Chairman Michael Powell

On June 2nd. I urge you to retain the current ownership rules.

As an African American I especially urge you to retain the current rules. God knows that Black history as well as the history of other minorities have suffered the bias and censorship of a few (read white men) over the centuries. We need open and free speech in this country.